

ROOTED IN ACTION

THIS IS WHAT WE'VE BEEN DOING THIS SEMESTER!

While the seasons shift above and underground, the SoilTribes project has been very active! Over the past few months, our mission to bridge science, art, and community has moved from vision to action.

Recognition on the Global Stage

We are thrilled to announce that SoilTribes has received a Certificate of Recognition in the Citizenship Education category of the Education for Climate2025 Award, recognized for its innovative approach to soil conservation.

Our Dissemination Manager, Silvia Diazzi, represented the project at the Education for Climate Day in Brussels, where she joined a vibrant community of EU officials, educators, researchers, NGOs, and project leaders.
